

Whereas Elizabeth Robbie has served with distinction the children and communities of Lebanon, Grantham, and Plainfield as the librarian and teacher of information skills at Lebanon High School for 34 years, and

Whereas, her interest in technology has opened the door to the twenty-first century for her students with online research services available in the home, and

Whereas, her concern for and dedication to the welfare of the entire school community has made her a leader of teacher and student government on the School Council, and

Whereas in 2003 she received the National Education Association-New Hampshire Award for Teaching Excellence, and she is known for her commitment, integrity, intelligence and grace;

Be it hereby resolved that the Lebanon School District sitting in its 2008 deliberative session of the Annual School District Meeting expresses its deepest appreciation for her scholarship, her friendship, and her service and wishes her a happy, healthy, and fulfilling retirement.

Presented this ninth day of February in the year 2008.
